PAROLES ET MUSIQUE III* wins Félix for TV program of the year – song category

Montreal, Oct. 26, 2005 – The beautiful documentary series Paroles et Musique III, an Amérimage-Spectra production broadcasted on ARTV, won the Félix for Television program of the year – Song category for an episode on Ariane Moffatt at Monday's evening's first portion of the ADISQ gala, the Junos' French-language counterpart.

Produced by Simon Dallaire, Paroles et Musique is into its third season on ARTV. Demystifying the world of artists, the program enables viewers to learn about these talented individuals through special get-togethers with them at home, at work, as they go about their daily activities, or in the company of friends or family members.

Numerous artists, including Chloé Ste-Marie, Daniel Boucher, France D'Amour, Jim Corcoran, Nanette Workman, Louise Forestier, Corneille and Isabelle Boulay, have revealed facets of themselves during Paroles et Musique I, II and III.

Filming is continuing for a fourth season of programs that will present a whole new line-up of artists such as Loco Locass, Vincent Vallières, Steffie Shock and Sylvain Cossette. This new series of episodes will begin airing on ARTV in January. Meanwhile, shows from the first three seasons can be enjoyed Sundays at 4 p.m., with a rebroadcast Mondays at 2:30 p.m. and 11 p.m. and again on Fridays at 10 a.m.

Paroles et Musique is produced by Alain Simard, president of L'Équipe Spectra, and Pierre L. Touchette, president of Amérimage-Spectra. The executive producer is Luc Châtelain, vice-president of L'Équipe Spectra's film and television division.

Amérimage-Spectra has now captured this year's two Félix awards for television programming. The firm also took the Félix for Television program of the year – Comedy category for Le Procès des Bleu Poudre, made in collaboration with Jacques K. Primeau and Les Bleu Poudre.
